1. Why do we need to help each other in the classroom?

Answer: There are some students in the class who cannot understand everything properly. They need some help. If we help them then they will learn their lesson easily. So, we need to help each other in the classroom for learning together.

2. How do we celebrate our religious festivals in Bangladesh?

Answer: People of different religious live in our country. Every religious group observe some festivals. In Bangladesh we attend the festivals of other religious group and share their joys in spite of belonging to another religion.